

466BC

CIMON (age 49) destroyed a large Persian fleet off the mouth of the river EORYME DON in PAMPHYLIA and on the same day landed troops and routed the Persian Army.

He also succeeded in driving the Persians from THRACE, CARIA, and LYCIA.